

Carmen Rio

Bulb Size 12cm+
Height 14"

early mid late

Semi-double, bright yellow flowers feathered with blood red. Planted en masse or in small clumps, they yield a beautiful splash of color. Excellent wherever a bold statement is needed.

Temple's Favourite

Huge orange blooms, flushed with purplish pink, nod toward the sun on thick stems. There's nothing else like them in the world of tulips. Excellent for cutting.

Humilis Violacea

Red Crocus Tulip. This violet-red gem resembles a crocus but blooms a little later—at daffodil time. Bulbs planted in a sunny location where the soil drains very well can form dense clumps over time. Native to Iran and Turkey.

Bulb Size 6-7cm
Height 6"

early mid late

Tubergen's Gem

Crimson buds open to yellow stars. Mass them for a cheery sight that can repeat itself for several years. Tubergen's Gem is a selection of Tulipa clusiana, which makes its home in Afghanistan and Tibet.

Banja Luka

Huge blooms of marigold yellow feathered deep orange-red. A brilliant and sturdy variety, very showy to say the least. This tulip is a movie star.

Bulb Size	12cm+
Height	20"

Best Purple

Satiny deep purple flowers. A sturdy and dependable garden tulip that's clearly the best solid purple around. Combines wonderfully with lighter-colored tulips.

Bulb Size	12cm+
Height	18"

Queen of Night

Queen of Night is as close to black as a tulip is likely to get. It's actually a very deep maroon. Combines nicely with other late tulips, including Virchic (facing page).

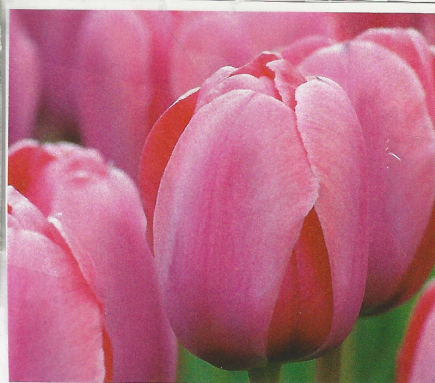

Bulb Size	12cm+
Height	24"

Best Pink

Magnificent, vivid pink flowers on stout stems. Flowers grow to enormous size. Unsurpassed for borders and mass plantings. Strong perennial tendencies. This variety is also known as Pink Impression.

Bulb Size	12cm+
Height	22"

Best Red

Vivid poppy-red. A vigorous tulip of great substance and radiant color that is sure to attract attention from a distance. One of the best red landscape tulips.
