Colton's helps SE Cheer raise funds

On Monday August 1, Colton's Steak House & Grill in Pittsburg donated 10% of their sales to the Southeast Cheer squad. These Lancers helped welcome and greet customers and raised an estimated $500 for their team in sales alone plus, another $215 in donations. Thanks to everyone who came out and supported the Southeast Cheer team!

National Champions!

Congratulations to Katie Bitner and McKenna Renn. Their 13 year old softball team won the 2016 USSSA 14U National Championship game held Sunday July 31 in Bentonville, Arkansas. The Battitudes is made up of girls from across Crawford & Cherokee Counties as well as the Webb City area, and finished the season 65-19. During the Nationals tournament Bitner hit her 15th homerun of the season. Both are freshmen at Southeast and plan to play for the Lancers this spring.

Scenes from the County Fairs

For the first time that anyone can remember, both the Cherokee and Crawford County fairs are being held at the same time—the first week of August. Below are from the various activities already held. You can see more photos at www.usd247.com/galleries/
