Pre-School Fun Night at SHS—April 11, 5:00p-6:30p

Southeast students in the Career/Community Connections class will host a Pre-School Fun Night at Southeast High School on April 11 for children ages 3 to 5 and their families. There will be age appropriate activities and a snack. Details are still being worked out.

Westervelt awarded scholarship

Southeast senior Madison Westervelt has learned that she has earned PSU Music Education scholarships in both band and choir. She and other Southeast musicians are preparing for the CNC League Music Festival on March 29 and the High School Regional Music Festival on April 8.

Junior High forensics update

Hanna Kemm and MaKayla Chase took 6th in Duet Acting in Fort Scott recently. The pair took 4th in Duet in a tournament hosted by Southeast. At that same tournament, also in Duet, Andra New and Laine Nichols took 5th, and Hannah McGowan and Hailee Green took 6th.

3rd Place in Chemistry Capers

Jessie Jenkins, Peyton Simpson and Amanda Becker took 3rd place in Chemistry Capers at PSU Science Day held February 23.

Dodge Ball Tournament raises $500 for NAMI Southeast

"The Sitting Ducks" member, and Vice President of the Southeast chapter of Future Health Professionals (HOSA), takes aim during HOSA's Dodge Ball Tournament held March 11. Fourteen teams took part in this year's tournament, raising $500 for the NAMI Southeast chapter. Winning this year's tournament was "Taking L's" - Brett Malle, Noah Newcomb, C.J. Peacock, Kyler Spahn, Jakob Tavernaro, and Malachai Williams.

Athletics Fundraiser: 4/21-28

Mark your calendars for April 21-28: Southeast athletes will be taking orders for cookie dough and popcorn to raise funds for two projects.

The first project is the reconditioning and repainting of the west gym at SHS, which Athletic Director Frank Pittman said will be done this summer.

The second project, is the planned construction of a new concession stand with restrooms to be built at the north end of the football field.

The location will make it more convenient for visiting fans at football games, and it will provide a better facility for baseball and softball.

Anyone wishing to donate directly to either of these projects should email Coach Pittman at fpittman@usd247.com or call 620-457-8315.

Kindergarten Roundup: April 4

Pre-Enrollment for all day Kindergarten at Southeast Elementary School in Weir for 2017-18 is scheduled for April 4. Schedule an appointment with the school by March 31 by calling 620-396-8211.

Children must be five years old on or before August 31, 2017. Parents will need to bring their child with the child's state issued birth certificate, immunization records, and social security card to the screening.

The Community Health Center of Southeast Kansas will be at the Roundup providing immunizations, dental screenings, etc. Parents will need to bring their insurance card. CHC of SEK will bill insurance and families will have no out of pocket expense.

Upcoming State competitions

Good luck to the following Southeast High School students competing in their upcoming Career Technical Education (CTE) state events:
