

Consumer Math High School

- Students will calculate earning, and tax deductions for a paystub.
- Students will create a budget, write checks, and use a checking/ savings account
- Students will understand different loan types, where to get them, and how to calculate them.
- Students will understand buying on installment plan, charge accounts and credit cards.
- Students will be able to shop for food, and be able to calculate discounts and taxes for checkout.
- Students will be able to calculate and understand rent vs buying, and paying for house utilities.
- Students will calculate the cost of owning and purchasing a vehicle, and other forms of transportation.
- Students will calculate saving and investing money in a variety of ways.
- Students will be able to navigate buying life insurance, homeowners insurance, and health insurance.
- Students will know the different forms for starting a job and filing taxes as well as calculate taxes.