

Art I Essential Questions: Students will be able to

Semester 1:

identify different types of lines and create compositions using line.

identify different types of shapes and create compositions using shape.

identify different types of space and create compositions using space.

identify different types of texture and create compositions using texture.

identify different types of color and create compositions using color.

Semester 2:

identify different types of contrast and create compositions using contrast.

identify different types of balance and create compositions using balance.

identify different types of rhythm and create compositions using rhythm.

identify different types of movement and create compositions using movement.

identify different types of proportion and create compositions using proportion.

Art II Essential Questions: Students will be able to

Part I:

create paper

Identify and create compositions using elements and principles.

create a book

Part 2:

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using graphite drawing pencils.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using charcoal.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using colored pencils.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using ink.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using oil pastels.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using watercolor paints.

Part 3:

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using acrylic paint.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using printmaking

Reflect upon and assess artworks.

Art III Essential Questions: Students will be able to

1st Semester

create paper.

understand and apply various media, techniques, and processes.

Using knowledge of elements and principles.

Choose and evaluate a range of subject matter, symbols, and ideas.

Understand how visual arts relate to history and culture.

Reflect upon and assess artworks.

Make connections between visual arts and other disciplines.

redesign an altered book.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using weaving and/or embroidery.

2nd Semester

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using additive sculpture.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using subtractive sculpture.

Understand techniques of and be able to create a composition using printmaking.

Recreate another artist's style into a self-portrait.

Adv. Art Essential Questions: Students will be able to understand and apply various media, techniques, and processes.

1st Semester

Using knowledge of elements and principles.

Choose and evaluate a range of subject matter, symbols, and ideas

Understand how visual arts relate to history and culture.

Reflect upon and assess artworks.

Make connections between visual arts and other disciplines.

2nd Semester

understand and apply various media, techniques, and processes.

Using knowledge of elements and principles.

Choose and evaluate a range of subject matter, symbols, and ideas

Understand how visual arts relate to history and culture.

Reflect upon and assess artworks.

Make connections between visual arts and other disciplines.